JUNE CLASS PLAY

"THE ENEMY"

by

CHANNING POLLOCK

CAST: Charles Was, Carl Behrend; Alice Harley, Pauli Arndt; Mary Houk, Baruska; Jack Risher, Bruce Gordon; Harold Byland, August Behrend; William Frick, Jan; Ottmar Weyer, Dr. Arndt; Isabel Cominshek, Mizzi Winckelman; Raymond Goss, Fritz Winckelman.

STAFF: Stage Manager, Chester Fahndrich; Prompters, Donna Adams, Irene Garber; Wardrobe Mistress, Lydia Autio; Electrician, William Paajanen; Business Managers, Lee Cook, Marian Buchwalter, Harry Pfile.

DIRECTOR: O. A. Lovett.

Different—original—striking, is this play presented by the June Class. Other classes have successfully presented comedies, mysteries, plays based on old legends, and now comes the "The Enemy", with a high ethical and moral purpose. The great demand for peace—peace from all wars—inspired this drama by Pollock.

The utter confusion and tragedy of the World War is vividly pictured in the lives of all. Carl Behrend, a young playwright of Vienna, voices a strong plea for peace in "The Enemy", which is produced with enormous success. Nevertheless, when the war breaks out in 1914, Carl must leave his wife to fight and die for Germany. To this sorrow for Pauli is added the death of the baby Carl. A war, ugly and stripped of glory, is shown also through such characters as Carl's father,—a war profiteer; Mizzi and Fritz, neighbors; Baruska, the maid; and Bruce Gordon, an English admirer of Pauli.

The theme is forcefully expressed in the last speech: "God give us Tolerance!—God give us Love!—God give us Peace!"

The purpose of "The Echoes" staff is to represent adequately every activitiy of Warren G. Harding in an artistic year book.

The members of the staff are chosen from the January and June graduating classes by the members of those classes.

This year's staff, believing that "action speaks louder than words", has used more pictures and less print than usual. Because pictures cost a great deal, economy was practiced by changing the cover.

Emily L. Kaufman is the faculty adviser.

The aim of the staff is to publish a school paper each school week.

Members are chosen each semester from all classes, chiefly on recommendation of teachers for dependability and high rank in English. Consideration is also given to pupils who try out for any position.

The High Life Derby proved to be a unique device for securing subscriptions the second semester. Home rooms having the highest percentage of subscribers were declared the winners. First prize went to 103, second to 201, and third to 214.

Dorothy M. Yost of the English department directs the work of the paper.

"It is with real regret that I realize that in June I shall say goodby to the club, with the knowledge that I shall never again share in its interests or pleasures. With most sincere good wishes to all the Aeneid Clubs, past present, and to come, I say for the last time, 'Valete, mei amici, valete.'

As our own poet, Whittier, has said,

'And when the world shall link your names
with gracious lives and actions fine,
'The teacher shall assert her claims and proudly whisper, 'These were mine'."

GLEE CLUBS

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs and orchestra, under the direction of Carl F. Scheig, produced very effectively this year "The Mocking Bird". In the opera, Old Louisiana was a colorful and romantic setting, with its pickaninnies, French immigrants, Spanish and French soldiers, and French citizen patriots. We still are humming "What's the Matter with the Moon Tonight", "Listen to the Mocking Bird", and "From a Different Point of View."

The leads were ably handled by Glenn Allen, Huston Pippenger, Edward Creaser, George Gentithes, John Cole, William Kemm, Robert Sowers, Alice Harley, Louise Henderson, Mildred McDonald, Arlene Wilber, Vera MacFarland, Florence Tosti, Bertha Crawford, Dorothy Dobbins, Ardester Wyndham, and Donald Max. BAND

The band not only accompanied the football team all season, but also made a hit everywhere with its unique formations, its classy drum major, its red and white uniforms, and last, but not least, its peppy music. All boys who have earned an athletic letter are eligible for membership.

The officers for the two semesters were: President, Abe Mayberry, Vic Burick; Vice President, Fred Canzonetta; Secretary-Treasurer, Frank Burkhart.

The faculty sponsors are Pierre F. Hill, Dwight B. Lafferty, and Wiley E. Garrett.

Real interest in the organization has been shown in the frequent meetings held. A campaign to eliminate in the student body all athletic letters other than the varsity "W" was a successful project. THE FOOTBALL SEASON

Having defeated three of our most important rivals---Youngstown Rayen, Youngstown South, and Massillon---our football team had a very successful season.

Victory over Newton Falls gave the Red and White a good start. Led by Burkhart and Canzonetta, the Warren Boys were never halted.

A "green" Ashtabula team was no match for the stronger Warren crew. The whole Warren team showed up well, although the field was a sea of mud.

A clever Sharon attack, led by Croft and Bailey, set the Warren Gridders down to defeat. The Red and White playing was slightly off color, but Davis showed nice form.

Salem came to town and eked out a 13-7 win over Coach Hill's proteges by scoring thirteen points in the first half. The game marked the second successive defeat for the Warren eleven.

Springing a surprise on the heavy South team, the "Bulldogs" finally pushed over a marker and won their first game from them in sixteen years. The game produced a flashy performer in "Junie" Davis, who featured with several long runs. (Above: Burky and Abe with the "bacon.")

The "Homecoming" Game proved "too much Dorsey" for the Warren Eleven and Martins Ferry won out, 13-0. The crowd which attended the game was one of the largest ever to witness an athletic contest on the Harding Athletic Field.

Leetonia was a much needed "breather"; with Romig, Davis, and Burkhart scoring at will, the locals won, 62-0.

Revenge for their defeat at the hands of Massillon last year was sweet for the Warren eleven when they ran up eighteen points against their rivals in their annual battle. The work of Mayberry and Sferra in stopping the Massillon backs was a sight to behold.

Completing an almost miraculous feat, Warren won her third major victory by downing Rayen.

As always happens when Warren is picked to defeat Niles, Warren went down to defeat in the Thanksgiving Day battle. The playing of the Red and White was sadly disappointing, except for the work of a few individuals, including Acting Captain Mayberry, Romig, and Hunter.

FIRST ANNUAL HOMECOMING

One of the foot-ball high spots of the year was the week-end of the Martins Ferry game. What if we did lose! Didn't we show them, and ourselves, a good time?

We could hardly say that the celebration began on Friday—because anticipation had been thrilling us for weeks. But Friday officially opened the affair with a big rally in the Court House Square. Then came a hectic snake dance (Can't you just remember how your arms hurt afterwards!), which ended at a huge bonfire in Perkins Flats. More fun!

Saturday—Rain—and The Game. Gene and Glen came to help celebrate and to meet our queen, Donna Adams, and her charming attendants, Martha Lee and Louise. Tommy and his airplane contributed to the general festivity.

The game left us with the impression that Martins Ferry raises giants. The score is easily remembered—but anyway it was a good game.

The Homecoming Dance in the gym was a big success and the crowd was record breaking.

Altogether—What a Homecoming!

THE BASKETBALL SEASON

BOYS

Warren opened its season against the "giants" from Cleveland East, who won out over the Red and White in an overtime period.

The Sharon game was hotly contested also, but Burick, Dowdell and Co. defeated the Sharon boys by a good margin in the over-time period.

Staging its copyrighted five minute rally, Warren polished off Rayen, South, and Girard.

At Massillon, "The Presidents" led from start to finish.

Playing their last high school game for the Red and White, Mayberry and Dowdell featured in the over-whelming victory over Ashtabula.

Off to a poor start the Warren players finally hit their stride and took over the Struthers team, the seventh straight win of the season.

"The Presidents" put up a good fight against Youngstown East but were no match for the East team.

In both games with Niles, Niles managed to nose out Warren in the extra period.

The locals had little trouble in polishing off the Brookfield and Steubenville teams, and defeated Newton Falls in a rough "football" game.

Vic Burick's foul shot after the whistle had blown gave Warren its one point lead and the victory over Kenmore.

Salem High avenged the defeats of last season and won out over Warren by the uncanny shooting of Sedinger.

In the sectional tournament the Warren players managed to get by Youngstown Chaney, and Youngstown East, but didn't fare so well against Salem. They won the Consolation game from East Palestine with little difficulty.

Burick was high point man for the season, while Dowdell was second, playing only during the first half of the season.

GIRLS

The girls' basket ball team played a good brand of ball and had a successful season.

The hard fought Sharon game resulted in a tie. Howland, Brookfield and Salem were old rivals which Warren defeated by a small margin. Girard had a fast team which swept the Warren girls off their feet. The Red and White lost in the last few minutes of play to an exceptionally good Farrell team.

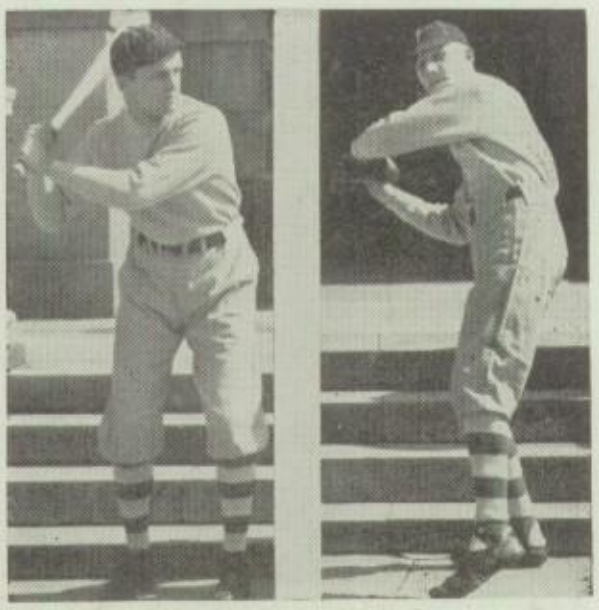
BASEBALL FORECAST



The Red and White's baseball squad is headed for another successfu l campaign under the capable leadership of Fred Romig and Vic Burick. Other vetterans back are Witherspoon, Sfera, and Breckenridge.

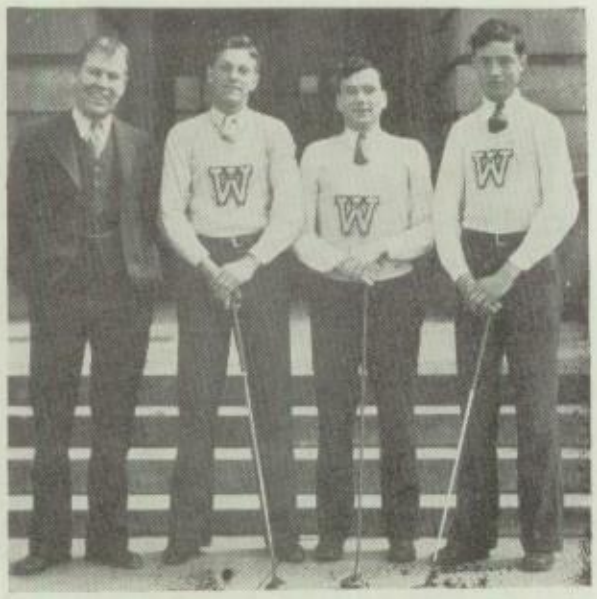
Promising new candidates are Matey, Butchko, Holko, Davis, Zoba, J. Burick, and Was.

The '32 team will have a hard hitting outfield, a scrappy infield, and a good mound staff that will be ably supported behind the plate.

An attractive schedule has been arranged with such teams as Martins Ferry, Shaw, Sharpsville, Braceville, Hartford, and Fowler.

Dwight B. Lafferty is the baseball coach.

GOLF PREVIEW



Mr. Kraker, Abe, Jimmie, Carl

The golf team's prospects appear to be better than ever with Carl Antonelli, Abe Gregor, and James Reynolds back from last year's undefeated quartet. A hard fight is expected for the fourth position. H. Antonelli, Zofko, and Matey are the best prospects.

Golf enthusiasts will follow our squad to Girard, Alliance, Salem, Struthers, and Youngstown Rayen.

The district tournament will find Warren among its twenty entrants.

Kenneth L. Kraker is the golf instructor.
